

BUNK AND BUNCO. THE CLEVER DACHSHUND. FLIEGENDE BLAETTER JUNE 28

A PICTURE STORY WITH BUT ONE WORD—By Tad. EVENING JOURNAL, JULY 27, 1908.

"TIRED OF LIFE."

YOUTH ENDS IT

Devout Young Clerk Inhales Gas After Writing Farewell Notes.Christie street. Pollack rented the room a week ago, and had been more or less of a mystery to the Inkels and their friends.He was always well dressed, had plenty of money, apparently. He spoke something of his father, who, he said, was a wealthy resident of Vilna, and of a brother, who is a diamond dealer in South Africa. Pollack impressed the Inkels by his devout observance of all the commandments of the Jewish faith.Last night he retired early and to-day a smell of gas, which she traced to his lodger's room, apprised Mrs. Inkels of his death. The door was broken and Pollack found dead, hanging a tube connected with the gas pipes around his mouth. On the table were three letters apologizing for the trouble he was causing.
One was in English, one in Yiddish and the third in Biblical Hebrew.
This is so little known on the east side that the Inkels had to hunt for letters for an interpreter.TO GET PASTOR CHURCH WILL ASK GIRL TO WED HIM.ATLANTIC CITY, July 29.—Deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city contemplate sending a delegation of their wives to La Crosse, Wis., in an attempt to prevail on the fiancee of Rev. John W. Hoag, a handsome young minister of that place, to marry him and come to the shore.Mr. Hoag has been called to the pulpit here by unanimous vote, but confided to the officials of the church that he had not been able to persuade the young woman to leave her home to come to Atlantic City. The delegation will carry along an offer to see the young pair up in housekeeping, and will ask that the wedding take place at once, so as to procure the services of the young minister for the summer meetings.FINED FOR PUBLIC KISSING.DANVILLE, Va., July 29.—Dr. W. Y.
Canada, a dentist, has been fined by Mayor Woodlin for kissing in his office in plain sight of the public. Mrs. Nannie Lamb, wife of Carl Lamb, a similar fine was imposed upon Mrs. Lamb. Dr.
Canada is married.GET HIM OUT OF JAIL TO KEEP 500 MEN WORKING.POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 29.—To enable the Wadsworth collar, employing 50 men and boys, to keep at work today, Justice McCool released Martin
